STF - Sectoral Impact Projects

Context

While Canada's Community Housing Sector includes about 600,000 housing units, this number has been more or less stagnant in the last 20 years. During this time, the population grew by almost %23 and the need for proper and affordable housing has continued to rise.

In order to reverse that trend and adapt to an evolving housing market reality, the Community Housing Sector advocated for what was to become the National Housing Strategy (NHS). Among other aspects, the NHS has set targets to build, repair and renew affordable housing. While this is urgently needed, it does not, in and of itself, address the entirety of the housing sector's needs. Beyond bricks and mortar, there is also a necessity to support already existing housing providers in addressing challenges. As a result, a resource centre was created — the Community Housing Transformation Centre.

While the Centre will not fund construction and renovation projects, it will provide new funding streams for those organizations willing to be the front runners in the journey towards improved capacities, long term viability and improved footprint reduction practices. It's important to note that the Community Housing Sector includes nonprofit housing, co-op housing and social housing. It does not include privately owned buildings or the for-profit sector.

Introduction

The Sector Transformation Fund, managed by the Centre, is a great lever to respond to service gaps across the country. It will reinforce successful models of development and make more accessible the tools needed to make the sector more resilient. The main goal is to enhance the organizational capacity of the sector and help it grow and flourish through the next decade.

While we are using the term tenant throughout this document for simplicity purposes, it also includes members of cooperative housing providers.

The Centre's Priority Areas

These are the top priorities set by the Centre which inform all that we do. Projects must correspond to at least one of these priority areas:

- Reducing the sector's environmental footprint
- Answering to gaps in service for Indigenous communities
- Supporting innovative and sustainable business practices
- Increasing social inclusion and community engagement
- Facilitating growth of the Community Housing Sector

APPLICATION PACKAGE

STF - Sectoral Impact Projects

Funding Objectives

The Sector Transformation Fund (STF) provides access to financial resources for the Community Housing Sector so it can undertake transformative changes to improve sectoral resilience and develop innovative housing solutions. STF is meant to support initiatives led by non-profit, social or cooperative housing providers and sectoral service providers.

The Centre defines transformational impact as change that is sustainable, long-term, concrete and far-reaching. As such, proposed projects need to include new approaches, tools and/or ways of doing things within the organization/sector.

This doesn't mean that the method or approaches are new altogether but, simply, that they are new for the specific provider proposing the project. Implementing a new method in your organization that has been proven by other providers is "new" and "innovative" for your organization.

STF should help achieve at least one of these funding objectives:

- Leverage existing funding
- Lead the sector to reduce its environmental footprint
- Encourage housing initiatives for Indigenous peoples
- Develop tools and make them more accessible
- Support sectoral consolidation and other partnerships
- Reinforce organizational capacity
- Enhance sector resilience
- Identify and fill sectoral gaps in housing services
- Engage community

Restrictions

The Sector Transformation Fund will not provide funding for the following activities:

- Construction and renovation activities;
- Fees related to legal or administrative actions (legal consultation is not restricted)
- Individual assistance in accessing housing;
- Activities not supporting the priority areas;
- Expenses for activities carried out prior to the Centre's written approval of funding ;
- Activities that are not new or transformative to the organization, provider or sector;
- Core programs, regular services, administrative and operating expenses;
- Retainer fees for work to be completed in the future;
- Fundraising activities; or
- Capital investment projects.

STF - Sectoral Impact Projects

Streams of STF Grants

There are two streams of projects supported by the Sector Transformation Fund, the Local Projects stream and the Sectoral Impact stream. Both streams are open to similar ranges of activities. The main difference is in terms of the scale of funding, organizational capacity and the broad range of expected outcomes.

STF-Local Projects

The Local Projects stream is meant to support local community housing providers, individually or as a small group. This type of grant prioritizes transformative projects that bring more or better services to their communities and increase organizational capacity of the grantee(s). They should contribute to a viable solution and strengthen the organization(s)'s mission.

STF-Sectoral Impact Projects

The Sectoral Impact stream supports either sectoral service providers, community housing providers or those who are responding to a large identified gap within the Community Housing Sector. This funding stream is aimed at transformative projects that bring more or better services to multiple communities across multiple areas. They should contribute to a viable solution and strengthen the housing sector, as a whole, in its region or by housing type.

Both Streams	LOCAL Projects only (Additional)	Sector Impact only (Additional)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Funding is available to community housing providers and sector service providers (non- profit, social or co-operative, land trust, housing networks/federations, etc.); The proposal purpose, objectives and programming must fall under the funding objective, priority areas and eligible activities; The grant must be used for the specific activity for which it is requested; The project must be completed by 2028; An organization presenting a second or additional application should not be in default under any of the obligations set out by any on-going or previous Funding contract with the Centre; 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Planned activities must demonstrate that they will benefit the local community itself (e.g.: provider(s), neighbourhood(s); etc.) Maximum funding amount of 150,000$. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Demonstrated capacity to implement large projects with far-reaching impact; Planned activities must demonstrate a benefit to the community housing sector or benefit the communities themselves; There is no maximum amount of funding.

Evaluation Criteria

The evaluation of each application will be undertaken through a thorough process by our Program Managers and may include external experts and an allocation committee. The Centre will make a final funding decision based on its assessment of the proposal.

Evaluation Scoring

Projects under 50,000$:

- Clarity of the request: proposal has clearly elaborated on project's beginning (planning/initiation), middle (execution) and end (closure).
- Potential of transformational impact: transformational impact is described as change that is sustainable, long-term, concrete and far reaching (i.e.: has the potential to leverage resources, enhance resilience, consolidate the sector, develop innovative business models, etc.).
- Clearly identified need of the project: proposal presents a solid understanding of the Community Housing Sector in question and/or the needs of the community/organization concerned. Proposal identifies gaps in service.
- Partnerships: Partnerships sufficient to match scale and scope of the project OR organization's ability to demonstrate that they do not need partnerships given internal capacity.
- Feasibility: Budget viability, human/material resources (including those coming from partnerships) and whether the project is realistic given the organization's scale and scope.

Projects of over 50,000$:

- Clarity of the request: Proposal has clearly elaborated on project's beginning (planning/initiation), middle (execution) and end (closure).
- Potential of transformational impact: Transformational impact is described as change that is sustainable, long-term, concrete and far reaching (i.e.: has the potential to leverage resources, enhance resilience, consolidate the sector, develop innovative business models, etc.).
- Clearly identified need of the project: Proposal presents a solid understanding of the Community Housing Sector in question and/or the needs of the community/organization concerned. Proposal identifies gaps in service.
- Partnerships: Partnerships sufficient to match scale and scope of the project OR organization's ability to demonstrate that they do not need partnerships given internal capacity.
- Project scale and budget properly aligned.
- Organizational Capacity: Organizational capacity is defined as human and material resources and ability to overcome challenges.
- Capacity to innovate: Application proposes implementing an existing idea/concept in a new way or proposes innovative approaches in the organization/sector.

Additional criterial for Sectoral Impact Proposals

- Scope of impact: The proposal will impact the applicant's region/sector or will have an impact beyond the region/sector.

Project Details

Provide a brief summary of your project:

Many organizations providing community housing in the Abitibi-Témiscamingue region have no federation of their own to represent them. This project aims to create a federation which will offer support to local agencies and promote development of affordable housing for the region. The goal of the project is to create a local federation based on input gathered from a public consultation and a series of meetings with local organizations. A local liaison agent will be hired to engage with local stakeholders and coordinate the steps for creation of this new organizational framework. Legal advice will be sought to draft a set of bylaws. The official incorporation of the new structure and the holding of a general meeting with its founding members will mark the project's successful conclusion.

Provide a detailed description of your project.

(e.g.: What is the background/context, what has been done already? What challenges does the project try to address? etc.)

Since associative services are provided by organizations based outside the Abitibi-Témiscamingue region, local agencies are deprived of adequate representation in community housing associations. Their concerns are not adequately addressed and proposed solutions do not correspond to their reality. The Abitibi-Témiscamingue region is a large territory presenting many challenges. Solutions developed for populous urban regions are unhelpful in this context.

The CNPHN has observed this problem for several years, but alternative solutions designed to compensate for the lack of a federation or other forms of local association have been unsuccessful or have produced unconvincing results. Although local organizations are affected by this problem, none of them possess the organizational capacity to establish a local association. For this reason, the CNPHN wishes to lead this project to facilitate the establishment of a federation that will then be able to operate and grow autonomously.

In addition to providing pertinent CNPHN resources, such as digital and organizational tools, the project aims to hire a liaison agent who is already familiar with the community housing sector and knows the issues of Abitibi-Témiscamingue. Their first task will be to consult with all the partners in the sector to learn what they want and need from the new federation.

In the second stage, the liaison agent will organize a series of meetings to discuss the structure and mission of the new organization. Their role will principally consist of guiding the discussions and encouraging convergence of the participants.

Once an outline of the future organization has been established, a law firm will be asked to draft a set of bylaws to serve as a basis for its incorporation. If enough stakeholders enter into the project, the liaison agent will proceed with the incorporation of the federation.

APPLICATION PACKAGE

STF - Sectoral Impact Projects

The final stage of the project will be holding a founding general meeting and selecting members of the board of directors thus holding the first meeting of the board.

How much money are you asking for?

$114,000

What other grants have you applied for or will you apply for in the future?

For each grant, please enter the name, value and status.

Grant Name	Value	Status (To be submitted awaiting approval, approved)
Provincial PAOC program	$24,000	Awaiting approval
Municipal grant for Community Housing	$5,000	Approved

How will the Centre's grant be essential for the realization of this project?

(Other sources of funding, small organization, etc.)

The CNPHN has a national mandate. The revenues from its programs and membership fees are allocated to other projects and regular operating costs. The CNPHN can provide material resources and expertise to the project but it does not have the requisite resources to build a federation for an area as large as Abitibi-Témiscamingue. The Centre's funding would help remedy a lack of support felt by all stakeholders in the sector.

Which of the following priority areas does your project relate to?

- ☐ Reducing the Sector's Environmental Footprint
- ☐ Answering Gaps in Service for Indigenous Communities
- ☒ Supporting Innovative and Sustainable Business Practices
- ☒ Facilitating Growth of the Community Housing Sector
- ☒ Increasing Social Inclusion and Community Engagement

How does your project relate to the following priority areas selected above?

Supporting Innovative and Sustainable Business Practices

With an Abitibi-Témiscamingue federation, it will be possible to find solutions adapted to the local reality. Local collaborative help will be available to organizations dealing with the region's challenges. Local representation will give greater weight to the demands of the regional not-for-profit housing sector. Moreover, the region will have a unified voice to express its concerns to provincial and national community housing organizations. We hope that, once established, this new federation will develop its own services which will benefit local agencies and foster their resilience.

Facilitating Growth of the Community Housing Sector.

Having a federation for the Abitibi-Témiscamingue region will produce a synergy favourable to the development of the regional community housing sector. Its creation will stimulate recruitment of professionals hired to focus on the affordable housing question and immediately boost collaboration in the region. We believe that, once established, this new federation will develop its own services which will benefit local agencies and bolster their resiliency. We hope that, in the long term, this increased capability within the sector will translate into new projects. Ultimately, this federation will give local agencies a newfound collective strength.

APPLICATION PACKAGE

STF - Sectoral Impact Projects

Increasing Social Inclusion and Community Engagement:

Stakeholders in the Abitibi-Témiscamingue region are scattered throughout the area and have little sense of affiliation when dealing with provincial and federal governing bodies. This project will help to unite these organizations and their supporters to create a climate conducive to mutual support and development of new affordable housing projects. More communities will feel included in decisions made by their federation and will be able to present their own point of view.

What is the geographical scope of the project?

- ☐ National
- ☐ Provincial or Territorial
- ☒ Municipal
- ☐ Neighbourhood

Where will your project take place?

Abitibi-Témiscamingue

Transformational impact is described as change that is sustainable, long-term, concrete and far-reaching. Please describe how your project falls within this definition for your organization, community or sector.

Establishing a federation will create a viable support for local groups. The immediate benefit will be a strong voice for housing NPOs in the region. Such a federation will probably take several years to attain an organizational maturity comparable to that of other federations in the province. This organization is expected to grow to offer helpful, accessible services to its members. The federation's development will be facilitated by resources already created by the other federations in the province. The organization will primarily be funded by membership fees and contributions to the sector. The federation will also support itself by developing services, an insurance program and soliciting funding agencies for special projects. We know from other regions with established federations or other types of association that this will produce numerous, significant benefits.

Who will be your partners in this project? What will be their involvement?

The RQOH will share its membership list for the region to facilitate organization of local stakeholders.

Three or four local agencies have already expressed interest in the idea of a new regional federation and offered their help. They could help the liaison agent rally the sector to maximize participation in the consultation and in the founding general meeting.

The city of Rouyn-Noranda is supportive of the project and has offered free use of a community room large enough to hold the founding general meeting.

What are some challenges you may face in the implementation of the project and how will you tackle them?

The size of the region will be a challenge and may prevent some individuals from attending some meetings. We have therefore planned to hold meetings in different areas of the region. We will hold separate meetings in three or four areas during the first phase of consultation. We think we will be able to maximize participation by broadcasting the meetings by videoconference.

The lack of interest shown by some organizations may limit early participation. Since no association or federation exists in the region, agencies are accustomed to working independently. Some organizations may not wish to take part in the creation of such a federation. Local agencies which are already interested could play a role in connecting stakeholders.

Disagreements over the function or structure of the new federation may arise from the lack of cohesion among organizations unaccustomed to collaborating and from differences between areas of the region. Having a multiple-stage plan for consultation and ensuring that participants remain engaged in the development of the new structure can help avoid some pitfalls. The liaison agent will need to prioritize this aspect of their work. A moderator will be recruited for some meetings to ensure consultation groups remain focused on the needs and objectives of the new federation.

STF - Sectoral Impact Projects

How would you share your project and its impact, with other communities that could benefit from your experience? What would that look like and what type of support would you need?

The liaison agent will maintain their logbook throughout the project to clearly illustrate the process from consultations through to incorporation of the new federation and what challenges were encountered along the way. We plan to publish an article on the subject on our website and make the document available to the entire community. We also plan to use this document when repeating the process in other regions of the country which lack a federation or similar structure but require one.
